CREATIVE ENERGY COLLECTIVE EFFORTS

EMPOWERING THE ART
THERAPY JOURNEY

AMERICAN ART THERAPY ASSOCIATION
2011 ANNUAL CONFERENCE WASHINGTON DC

Learn clinical approaches and best practices in art therapy that are making a positive impact on people's lives. Hear from leading national experts about art therapy programs in K-12 Schools, care facilities serving veterans and their families, hospitals, clinics and community centers. Explore contemporary issues affecting the art therapy health profession. Education, supervision, ethics, multicultural competencies, research and theoretical models will be explored. Attendees will have access to more than 150 educational sessions and can earn more than 32 continuing education credits (CECs).

Bring friends & family! Packed with free, kid-friendly attractions, Washington, DC is an ideal destination for a fun, educational vacation. Come to learn and enjoy—there's no better place to be empowered than in this dazzling international capital city. We're sure you'll find the conference full of new ideas, stimulating presentations and networking opportunities.

I look forward to greeting you at the conference this summer.

Jane DeSouza, MPS, ATR-BC, LCAT • Conference Committee Chair

Washington, DC is a city that makes history.

The Local Arrangements Committee (LAC), Potomac Art Therapy Association, Maryland Art Therapy Association, and the Virginia Art Therapy Association invite you to Washington, DC to discover and celebrate our history.

Washington, DC offers an impressive list of free and fascinating attractions, from the powerful monuments and memorials on the National Mall to inspiring cultural treasures like the Smithsonian Institution, Library of Congress and National Gallery of Art. Plan to come early to see the Independence Day fireworks on the National Mall with your family and friends. Thanks to DC's pedestrian-friendly streets and outstanding public transportation system it's easy to get around!

Be our guest at the Night on the Town event which offers a Tour and Art Gallery Walk in Old Town Alexandria, Va. Home to the Art Therapy Graduate Program at George Washington (GW) University, the national office of the American Art Therapy Association, and the Torpedo Factory featuring more than 145 artists' studios and galleries, you'll find lots of ways to learn and explore. Stroll along historic King Street, with your friends and colleagues and visit galleries, federalist period museums, quaint taverns, restaurants, and unique boutiques. There's so much to do and see throughout your stay in Washington, DC!

We look forward to seeing you in July!

Deborah Bunkley, MA, ATR • Local Arrangements Committee Chair

We invite you to attend American Art Therapy Association's 42nd Annual Conference at the Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, DC July 6-10, 2011. The conference brings together Creative Energy and Collective Efforts for a truly valuable educational experience.

Keynote Speakers

Dr. Edgar Hatrick, President, American Association of School Administrators •

Dr. Hatrick, recently elected President of the American Association of School Administrators, has spent 20 years as Superintendent of Loudoun County Public Schools. Over his 44 year career he has been a high school English teacher, a high school principal, served as director of special education, director of instruction, supervisor of guidance and foreign languages, and assistant superintendent for pupil services. The American Association of School Administrators (AASA), founded in 1865, is the professional organization for more than 13,000 educational leaders in the United States and throughout the world. AASA supports and develops effective school system leaders who are dedicated to the highest quality public education for all children.

Dr. Gary Wynn, US Army, Research Psychiatrist, Center for Military & Psychiatry & Neuroscience, Walter Reed Army Institute of Research •

A West Point Graduate, Dr. Wynn completed a double residency in Psychiatry and Internal Medicine at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. After graduating from residency he spent a year as the Division Psychiatrist for the 2nd Infantry Division at Camp Casey, Korea. Dr. Wynn was the Assistant Chief of Inpatient Psychiatry at Walter Reed Army Medical Center where he worked with Service Members returning from the conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. Since 2009, Dr. Wynn has been working as a research psychiatrist in the Military Psychiatry Branch of the Center for Military Psychiatry and Neuroscience at the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) Representative •

Transforming Mental Health Care in America and Children's Mental Health, followed by an expert panel of art therapists specializing in creative arts related to dissociative disorders who will share their front line expertise, best practice program models, and practical experience.
